FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University will host an art camp for high school students July 12-17. Aim of the session is to provide skill development in graphic design, photography, drawing, painting and crafts.

Camp director is Dr. Hannah Eads, Professor of Art at Eastern. Fee is $195. Complete information may be obtained by contacting the Office of Continuing Education, (217) 581-5114. Other sponsors are the Art Department and the College of Fine Arts.

A Continuing Education spokesperson said various civic groups provide scholarships to talented students, and that students should check with their art teachers about this possibility. However, scholarships are not needed to register for the camp.
